Now and Zen

A recent addition to the house, the master bedroom has a high, peaked ceiling, large windows and a new hardwood floor, giving the room a clean, contemporary look. The design team decided to reinforce its modern appeal with simple, bold furniture, an up-to-date colour palette of taupe, sky blue, espresso and silver, and recurring square elements. The walls are painted with a subtle, tone-on-tone taupe stripe. The handmade bed, in painted silver steel with a sky blue linen duvet cover, has a dominant headboard with steel squares in a checkerboard pattern. The bureaus, night stands and shelf unit, in an espresso finish with cast aluminum legs, all have strong, geometric shapes. The square element is further repeated in a boxy, sky blue velvet upholstered chair with aluminum legs, the silver finials on the curtain rods, the pattern on the curtains, and in the handmade square steel mirror.
