Working Class

This home office design is a contemporary take on the classics. The room's small scale demands that its décor be clean and simple. Walls in an earthy white hue are softly accented with silver and chocolate brown. Reminiscent of the timeless look of the 1940s, a silver finish gives a modern retro look to the maple office furniture's solid, clean lines. A comfortable yet stylish leather chair and ottoman add softness while grounding the room. The furniture is partnered by a round chrome and glass side table—an early modern design classic. In keeping with the time period, the lighting is elegant and understated.
