MODERN

Deco Living

The living room proves that good design never goes out of style. The room concept combines the classic elements of the Art Deco period of the 1920s and '30s with today's colours, materials and accents. While being very decorative, the room is also simple in design. The sunburst mirror, candleholders, fireplace screen, lamps and bar cart incorporate geometric elements of lines and circles—typical of the Deco era. Modern updates of muted tones of blue, cream and silver combine with bold accents of chocolate, mango and chartreuse. Both form and function win the day, as the living room is designed for relaxing with good friends and good conversation in an inviting atmosphere.
