Soothing tones of soft greens and blues provide a refreshing backdrop for a small space in which to work, to create. This breezy feeling is echoed in the brushstrokes and palette of the large landscape painting above the desk, which adds life and movement to the room. A handmade upholstered bench with steel and glass tile serves as both a place to recline and read as well as to store books below. The multitude of pillows, with their contemporary patterns, adds to the comfort. Chrome and mirror accents give sparkle, while the dark wood of the desk, chair and file cabinet anchor the room. The espresso finish with light distressing accentuates the striking walnut veneer and maple solids. Clean, straightforward lines, softened by graceful ovals, recall the simple sophistication of the 1930s, 40s and 50s. With an air of confidence and a casual touch of glamour, the room appeals to those with a sophisticated lifestyle and a heightened sense of style.

With Bachelor of Fine Art degrees from the Nova Scotia College of Art and Design, both partners in this dynamic team bring a contemporary, clean-lined sophistication to all their decorative work. Ranked by Canadian House & Home magazine as one of the top 20 designers to watch in the country, Christopher creates one-of-a-kind and limited-edition works out of steel and other materials, which are showcased at the pair's home furnishings store, Attica. The innovative downtown shop features modern furniture and accessories by local and international artists and designers.

“ I SORT OF HAVE A CRUSH ON MY TEACHER. I KNOW NOTHING WOULD EVER HAPPEN OR ANYTHING BECAUSE THAT IS ILLEGAL AND QUITE FRANKLY GROSS... HE'S A REALLY NICE GUY. I JUST FEEL SO GROSS ABOUT IT. BUT I CAN'T EXACTLY CONTROL IT. IS THIS NORMAL? ”
